

How to Request a Title from Kanopy

Alexander College Library

Updated July 2020

1. Log into AC's Kanopy account by going to the Library's "Articles and Databases" page and logging into Kanopy. Contact AC Library if you need instructor login information.
2. Search for the title of the film you would like locate. Films that AC does not yet have will appear at the bottom of the Kanopy page.

7,978 videos you can request for your library

 15 Reasons To Live - The Nature of Human Happiness
Kino Smith
...Death. It's a thoughtful and searching examination on the nature of human happiness and the profound events in life that can unexpectedly change the course...

 Double Dare
Gunpowder & Sky
... DOUBLE DARE is a double-barreled, action-packed documentary about the struggles of two stuntwomen in male-dominated Tinseltown to stay working, stay...
There are matches in the transcript ▾

3. If you find a title that you would like to request access to, click on the film and fill out the short request form (below). Kanopy will send the Library this request, and the Library will be able to look into purchasing the title.

Alexander College doesn't offer 15 Reasons To Live right now.

Let them know how you'll use this title and we'll pass along your message.

Full Name: *

Email Address: *

Course Number: *

Describe your role: *

Instructor       Undergraduate Student

Faculty       Graduate Student

Other

What will this title be used for?

Request Access

Note: For film requests to be considered, the film must be connected to a class assignment or final exam, and students must be required to watch the film in its entirety (ie. the film cannot be substituted by playing short clips). Please indicate this in the "What will this title be used for" section on the Kanopy request form.